Subject: January is almost over!

Good morning my loves

Can you believe January is almost done? I know many of you will feel relieved. I for one am glad that we are one month closer to Spring. I have bulbs poking through in my pots. It's very exciting. Sheilagh Bell from Exmouth choir made me a bulb lasagne as a housewarming present. I am so excited to see what comes up first!

LOW VOICE WORKSHOP

When will I shut up about this? Well in truth I'll not mention it again after this week as it is this coming Saturday. It will go ahead. We have 30 people signed up. But there are 29 Tenors and 31 Bass in La La so are the rest of you busy? We have some lovely new people coming along. Has anyone else got a low-voiced friend, family member or colleague that would enjoy it? IT IS FREE 😊

Everyone will need to register including you. Covid secure and all that. So please register here. <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfvKWiyQKxJuUYL1flZEugNGeYjIFRI78trQfi7Qd3jkWHuJQ/viewform>

THIS WEEK AT CHOIR

No new songs this week. We will crack on in earnest now with the four we have started. Don't Stop Me Now, Sweetest Feeling, Here There and Everywhere and That Man. The end of night song this week was a tricky one to pick. We have done a couple of corksers. LET YOUR LOVE FLOW is what we will have a go at. Have a listen in preparation on the member's page. It's so full of smiles which is really all you need to sing it perfectly.

TENORS at Exeter

We have three tenors off with long term stuff and one away this week. At a choir where there are only six tenors that leaves just one. I sound like a key stage one maths textbook... Anyway, if any Tenors are able to come and help in Exeter this week as we have two newbies that were feeling rather exposed last week, then I would be extremely grateful. And so would the one tenor! Thank youuuuuuuuuuu

It is week three of a new term/block and many of us know what week three or sometimes four can feel like. It is almost like it's the Wednesday of a normal week. Not the fresh new beginning, not the heading towards the rewards of the weekend. Hump day! So if it feels like you aren't remembering things as quick as you would like to or you lack the confidence and motivation this week or next that you came in with at the beginning, do not panic! It's just the Wednesday feeling. | We are taking things steady and have plenty of time to learn and enjoy everything we have started and all the lush songs to come. No pressure. Just singing and laughter.

I cannot wait to giggle at the mess Let Your Love Flow may well be. Yay!

Love you millions
